

Validation Testing

Test Case : Login

Objective	To check if the user enters a wrong username or password
Action	The password was entered wrong
Expected Result	An error message must be displayed asking the user to enter correct username or password.
Obtained Result	An error message was displayed asking user to enter a correct username and password.
Conclusion	Test Successful.

Test Case : SignUp

Objective .	To check if the information entered by the user gets stored in the database
Action	A new username, email address and password were entered
Expected Result	A message with an account created for the new user and new user must be added to the database when viewed from admin page.
Obtained Result	A message with an account created for the new user and new user was displayed on the database viewed from the admin page.
Conclusion	Test Successful

Experiment - 10

Class Diagram

